

The Skyes above Bucharest

C. D. Constantinescu

National Institute for Laser, Plasma and Radiation Physics, Magurele,
Romania

Photographies of celestial bodies and nocturnal events were taken over Bucharest night time, during several months. The images are presented as a spectacle, giving accurate details of the photographic composition and for the shooting conditions. The intention of this work is to promote astronomy and its beautifulness to young students, as well as to the general public.